

Access to Higher Education: Social Sciences (Psychology, Criminology & Sociology) Level 3

Where are you going?

Police	Psychology
Welfare Services	Neuropsychology
Prison Service	Community Work

The study of Social Sciences opens up diverse opportunities in areas such as the criminal justice system: HM courts and tribunal service; welfare services; the police, prison and probation services; youth and community work; and local government. For those wishing to pursue a career in Psychology, career paths may include: clinical, health, sport, forensic and neuropsychology.

Course duration: 34 weeks (part-time).

Price: £3022

What will I learn?

- Higher Education Toolkit
- Psychological Perspectives
- Sociological Perspectives
- Criminology

You will also develop your study skills in: note taking, planning / structuring essays, critical and creative thinking and effective referencing.

How will I be assessed?

Assessment will be via assignment work, research projects, examinations, reports and reflective accounts.

What are the entry requirements?

GCSE English at Grade A*-C/9-4 or equivalent.

You will also be required to attend an interview with a member of our admissions team.

Although not an entry requirement for this course, a Level 2 maths qualification is desirable on starting the course but not essential. Where applicants do not have this qualification, progress will be reviewed by the Head of Studies and they will study Level 2 maths alongside this course starting in Semester 2.

What progression is there?

On successful completion of this course you will be able to progress to a higher level qualification / degree.

It is important that prior to enrolling you research and contact the institution you wish to progress to, to ensure you are aware of the entry requirements for your chosen progression route and that this access course will be accepted as an entry requirement.

Where will I study?

Runshaw College, Chorley Campus, Euxton Lane, Chorley, PR7 6AQ.

How do I find out more and apply?

What's your #future?

Student Funding

You may be eligible to apply for an Advanced Learner Loan to cover the cost of the course fees.

If you successfully complete your Access course and progress to and successfully complete a degree/higher education course the balance of your loan will be written off. This means your Access course could be free!

If you are aged between 19-23 years and this is your first full Level 3 you may be entitled to a free course. To find out more about financial support available to you please contact Student Services on 01772 643020 or visit the 'Money Matters' page on our website www.runshaw.ac.uk
