English Functional Skills

Our Functional Skills English course aims to build on your current skills and to focus on the skills needed to help you succeed in everyday work and social situations. They look at communication skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening and are available at three levels (Entry Level 3, Level 1 & 2).

Duration

Up to 17 weeks.

Price

FREE if you are 19+ and you do not currently hold a GCSE at grade A*-C / 9-4 or equivalent.

Learning Method

In person delivery. Your progress will be regularly reviewed with your tutor. You will work individually, in pairs, small groups or as a whole class in order to consolidate the skills and knowledge taught. You will need to do approximately 3 hours of directed study per week in your own time.

What will I learn?

The courses will focus on reading, technical writing skills and planning and creating a range of personal and work documents such as letters, reviews and forum posts. The courses will also develop confidence in your speaking and listening skills. The speaking and listening tasks focus on effective communication in discussion groups and individual work. In addition to class time, you will complete around 3 hours of independent study per week.

Course units

Understanding textual features

Identifying different styles of writing

Communicating information and expressing views

Spelling words used in work, study and daily life

Adapting language suited to audience
