#Lots of space to study

Learning Resource Centres

The Learning Resource Centres provide students with welcoming and supportive places for independent study outside of class time.

There are four open access Learning Resource Centres at Runshaw College. Each is a well-equipped area specifically designed for independent study with a staff team who are always available to help.

Students can:

- Prepare for lessons
- Read and research
- Complete homework and assignments
- Revise for exams
- Create CVs and develop employability skills
- Write university applications
